A Healthy Computer

HAND-OUT SHEET | ANSWER KEY

It is best to install only the programs that you need and use because:

a) Too many programs will make your computer heavy

b) Programs are very complex and may contain unknown security faults

c) Isn't fashionable to have a lot of apps

d) It uses less battery

> The millions of lines of coded instructions in software means there is a risk that they could contain a little mistake that could create security flaw.

Software updates are:

a) Not necessary

b) Important maintenance work to fix potential issues with your programs

c) Something to do when you have time

d) A money making scheme

> Updating software regularly greatly increases the security of your computer or device.

Spyware is… :

a) Encryption programs

b) Privacy invading software sometimes bundled with other programs

c) Made by the FBI

d) always very easy to spot

> Software designed to monitor your activity on the computer such as by sending a record of your Internet use to marketing companies is known as spyware.

serene risc