

Going out onto the Internet

HAND-OUT SHEET

Advertising can be a potential security problem because:

- a) It can carry malware.
- b) You might buy things you don't need.
- c) Companies can send subliminal messages.
- d) It always is spying on you.

If you make a mistake when you type a web address incorrectly, it will autocorrect.

- a) True
- b) False

A lock symbol on the page means that the page is safe.

- a) True
- b) False

There are security indicators in a bank webpage so you can tell if the page is counterfeit.

- a) True
- b) False

Security seals in a webpage can be faked.

- a) True
- b) False

If you turn off cookies, or opt out of tracking your privacy is guaranteed.

- a) True
- b) False

Criminals always use bad grammar in phishing pages.

- a) True
- b) False

Privacy mode in the browser provides:

- a) Anonymity for whistle-blowers.
- b) Access to your private Internet.
- c) Discrete browsing by not keeping a history of browsing on the computer.
- d) Absolutely private browsing by hiding all record your activity.